Stop excusing your life away.

If I haven't got cancer by now I'll never get it. I just don't want to know. No one in my family ever had cancer anyway. My husband told me not to worry. I was going to go but I remembered the goldfish needed feeding. It was raining out, and I was afraid I'd get sick on the way. I overslept and missed my appointment. Who cares. I don't have a doctor. I feel fine. I missed the bus. The canary got out so I chased it around for hours. I forgot. I had to get a haircut. The kids wanted ice cream first. The traffic was terrible. The weather was great so I played golf instead. I'm not sick, ever. I don't have the money right now. If cancer's in the stars, it's in the stars. I went to the doctor's on the wrong day. I went to the wrong doctor's. Maybe next week I'll make it. It's against my religion. I'm scared. I need to lose a few pounds first. I'm too busy right now. The office would fall apart without me. My father never went to the doctor's and he lived until he was 90. I don't like to think about it. Nothing's [illegible] anyway. My doctor's fingers are too cold. I'm too young to worry about cancer. I'm too old to care. I thought only rich peo[illegible] and fix dinner. I never heard of it. My boss wouldn't give me the day off anyway. There was a great sale [illegible] had a funny rattle. No one in my family ever had cancer. I'm not afraid of cancer. I lost a button that [illegible]. By the time they find it, it will probably be too late. I was doing laundry. I haven't been sick a day in my life. Cancer of the wha[illegible]ctors are boring. In my business I need every hour I can get. If I die tomorrow I couldn't care less. But I eat right. I'm always exercising. I forgot brid[illegible]ub met that afternoon. My doctor's office is too far away. I forgot to cas[illegible]son. My clothes were at the laundry. I feel great. It upsets me to talk ab[illegible] why. If I haven't got cancer by now I'll never get it. I just don't want to [illegible] told me not to worry.
